

Cookies Statement

Last Revised: 4th May 2018

Introduction

Liverpool Hope Students' Union ("we", "our" or "us") uses cookies on our websites. This statement explains how we use cookies when you visit our website (our "Site"). By accessing, browsing and using our Site, you confirm that you accept this cookie policy and that you consent to our use of Cookies on your computer or smart device as set out in this cookie policy.

What are cookies

Cookies are small text files that store information on your computer or smart device when you access certain websites. Cookies allow us to recognise your device when you visit our Site and they enable us to store certain information about your preferences, for example your local store. Cookies make it easier for you to maintain your preferences and help us customise the Site to suit your preferences.

How can I prevent cookies being used

You can, should you choose to, disable the cookies from your browser and delete all cookies currently stored on your computer or smart device. You can find out how to do this for your particular browser by clicking "help" on your browser's menu or by visiting <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/index.html>.

However, please be aware that should you choose to disable cookies from your browser it may prevent you from taking full advantage of our Site and our Site may fail to work properly which will greatly impact on your use and enjoyment of our Site. You will see from the section below headed "How we use cookies" that most of the cookies used by us are recognised as being essential cookies, which are required in order to make our Site work.

How we use cookies

We use cookies on our Site. However, we do not collect or store personal data via the cookies used on any of our Site.

When someone visits our Site we collect standard internet log information. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of our Site. We collect this information in a way which does not individually identify you.

If, in the future, we decide that we do want to collect personally identifiable information by using cookies, on our Site, we will be up front about this. We will make it clear when we will collect such personal information, how we will collect it and what we intend to do with it.

1st Party Cookies

Google Analytics

These cookies are used to collect information (non-personal information) about how visitors use our Site. We use the information to compile reports, which will help us to monitor our Site's performance and enable us to improve our Site, where necessary. This cookie collects information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to our Site, where visitors have come from and the pages they have visited.

Google Analytics has been assessed as posing a very low intrusiveness level to you however Google has produced a plugin for browsers that helps you to opt out of this form of analytics if you do not wish us to use it. Find out more:

- About the opt out tool at: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/>
- About Google's privacy policy at:
https://support.google.com/analytics/topic/2919631?hl=en-GB&ref_topic=1008008

3rd Party Cookies

Third party cookies are cookies that have been written on to your browser or device by a website that is different from the website you are actually visiting (i.e. by a site other than ours, in this case). We do not use 3rd Party Cookies.

